Subject: Teleconference to Review Comments on Pre-Final Design for RM 10.9 Removal
Action

I have a conflict for next Thursday afternoon, so I would like to suggest an alternative:

Will a meeting request for Friday morning February 25 at 10:00 - 11:30 AM be acceptable to all on this distribution? Our plan is to distribute the draft Response to Comments on Thursday morning by email, so that would give the team a day to look at it before our discussion.

If this proposal is bad for the critical members of the review team, let me know and I'll see if we can free up some time for Thursday morning instead.
